Day 3 – Discover Cape Town – Boulders Beach, Hout Bay, Chapmans Peak & Much More

Breakfast at the hotel. As you begin this exciting day, please don't forget to bring your camera! This Cape Point tour to the south western tip of the Cape Peninsula offers some of the most spectacular views in the world. See seals in Hout Bay (optional boat ride) and have time to wander the shops. You can explore the Cape Point Nature Reserve at your leisure, and check out playful families of African penguins in Simon's Town.

From water to skies, Chapman's Peak is a mountain on the Cape Peninsula with a 5.5-mile (8.8 kilometers) road, said to be one of the world's most scenic drives. The road winds from Hout Bay to Noordhoek, clinging to the side of the steep mountain almost the whole way. Traveling this road's 114 turns is a must-do in Cape Town.

Later we head to Cape of Good Hope, rocky promontory at the southern end of Cape Peninsula, Western Cape province. Cape Town definitely has no shortage of amazing beaches, but Boulders in False Bay offers something extra special – a colony of African Penguins in all their smartly dresses, waddling glory, and right under your nose. In fact, it's the only place in the world where you can get close to African Penguins. Finally, we end the tour with a visit to the naval port of Simons Town.
